LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

Thomashoff+partner Architects worked with Fercor Construction on two projects for the University of Pretoria:

- 2018: Jake Kitchen upgrade
- 2022: Jake Staff Facilities upgrade

Throughout the construction period, Fercor Construction demonstrated dedication and due diligence in handling the assigned projects. They exhibited a good level of attentiveness to all aspects of the construction process, ensuring that every detail was attended to.

The site foreman effectively coordinated and managed all aspects of the projects. With attention to detail and a thorough technical knowledge, the site foreman adeptly dealt with all coordination issues that arose, promptly resolving them in a manner that exceeded our expectations.

Fercor Construction consistently demonstrated their ability to deliver the projects on time and within the allocated budget. This adherence to schedule and financial constraints not only showcased their professionalism, but also highlighted their project management skills.

As the principal agent overseeing these projects, we had the opportunity to develop a good working relationship with Fercor Construction. Their reliability, expertise, and commitment to delivering high-quality results were evident throughout our collaboration.

Based on our positive experience, we recommend Fercor Construction as a dependable contractor. It was a pleasure to work with them, and we look forward to future opportunities to engage their services.
